OPERATORS HESITATE

Not Inclined to Meet President's Proposal Unless There Is Assurance of Early Action by Commission on Arbitration Hearing Will Name

BY EDWARD H. CASHIN
Special Correspondent of The Courier
WASHINGTON, July 11.—The United Mine Workers have called the nation's attention to the fact that the coal miners' strike is not a simple labor dispute, but a struggle for the extension of working conditions and rules to August 10. If he resists in the affirmative, he will accept his proposition because that will set them the check off.

The operators are not disposed to accept the proposition unless given some assurance that arbitration will not be indefinitely prolonged.

The hearings by the commission under Mr. Harding's proposal might be indefinitely postponed.

Neither side will announce its position until Saturday.

WASHINGTON, July 11.—The coal strike situation marked today by the meeting of the operators and miners in the White House and the signing of a new wage scale by arbitration and the immediate resumption of work means that the wage rates of March 31 have been restored.

The miners' representatives were delaying a final reply to the proposal until a decision is reached by the general policies committee of the United Mine Workers.

Some operators in union fields who have kept their doors closed three months in the belief that a wage reduction was necessary, a lower production cost and lower prices to meet levels of other commodities found most difficult to accept; the sections of the President's arbitration offer which would continue the wage time mining was seen for what they regard as an indefinite period.

In the union circles the disposition is to question whether the arbitration would leave union districts in West Virginia, Washington state and the Southwest which have more or less relapsed to non-union operation.

It is also a disposition to consider what the arbitration would do for the new unions which successfully came into being in certain non-union territories of Pennsylvania under the impulse of national strike.

It is the union view that the wage scale fight under the arbitration offer is more or less won.

The net result was to give both components in the conference considerable room for thinking.

INDEPENDENCE DAY CUT HEAVILY INTO COAL PRODUCTION

Total for Week Estimated at Between 3,500,000 and 4,000,000 Tons

RAILROAD CONGESTION

In Kentucky and West Virginia Contributions to Further Decrease in Tonnage Reaching Markets Steady Draft on Reserve Supplies Coko Gaining.

The weekly report of the United States Geological Survey states that coal production during the 14th week of the strike was interrupted by the Independence Day holiday. The total output of bituminous coal will probably fall between 3,500,000 and 4,000,000 tons, and even the average production per working day will show a decrease. Production of anthracite remains practically zero.

Complete returns for the 13th week, June 26-July 1, indicate an output of 5,207,000 tons of bituminous coal and 25,000 tons of anthracite, a total of 5,232,000 tons, of all coal. In the corresponding week of 1931 bituminous mines produced 7,669,000 tons and the anthracite mines 1,876,000 tons, a total of 9,545,000 tons. In 1930, a year of active business, the total coal raised was 12,084,000 tons. Considering anthracite and bituminous coal as a common source of supply, it will be seen that present production is running from 5,000,000 to 6,000,000 tons behind normal.

The record of daily loadings of cars of bituminous coal clearly discloses the effect of Fourth of July holiday. On Saturday, July 1, 12,541 cars were loaded as against 13,593 cars on the preceding Saturday. On Monday only 11,365 cars were loaded. On independent day itself production ceased almost entirely, and the recovery thereafter was slow. By Thursday, July 6, loadings had reached 14,970 cars but were still running 2,000 cars below the level of the week preceding. Even allowing for full recovery on Friday and Saturday, it does not appear likely that the week's production can pass 3,900,000 tons.

Contributing to the decrease in output was a recurrence of traffic congestion on the railroads of Southeastern Kentucky and parts of West Virginia.

The deficit between current production and consumption means a steady drain on consumers' reserves. Just how rapidly stocks are diminishing

MONTHS OF SUFFERING

How a Baltimore Girl Recovered Her Health

Baltimore, Maryland.—"For several months I suffered with severe backache and general weakness. I could not sleep comfortably at night for pains in my back. I found your book at home one day and after reading it became at once to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I have had very good results and some of my girl friends are taking it now. You may use this letter to help other girls, as the letters in your book helped me." — Rose Wambert, 3013 Roseland Place, Baltimore, Md.

That is the thought so often expressed in letters recommending Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. The women know what they have suffered they describe their symptoms and state how they were finally made well. Just plain statements, but they want other women to be helped.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a medicine made from medicinal roots and herbs, and without drugs, to relieve the aches and pains of old age, which is indicated by backache, weak feeling, nervousness, and no ambition to get anything done or to go anywhere. It has helped many women. Why not try it?

Driving with ATLANTIC and Confidence

There is a fine sense of security in knowing just what your motor can do -- and that it can always be depended on to do it.

A good battery, dependable starter, sure-fire ignition and quick-acting, full-powered gasoline -- these are the things that put confidence into the hand that drives the car.

"Quick-acting, full-powered gasoline" -- that means ATLANTIC! Atlantic is refined to meet the most exacting requirements of present-day motors, and to operate efficiently under the widest range of speed, load and temperature conditions a motor gasoline encounters.

It is a balanced gasoline, scientifically combining the volatility for easy vaporizing, the stability for high expansive force, and a uniform "chain of boiling points" for assuring complete combustion.

There is no other gasoline like Atlantic. It is more than good gasoline; it is RIGHT gasoline, always uniform, always dependable -- and a-l-w-a-y-s o-b-t-a-i-n-a-b-l-e.

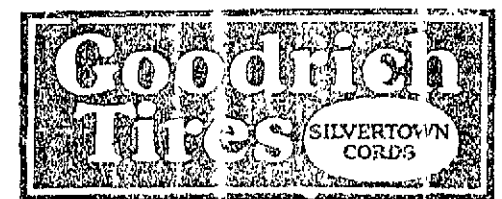

"There's an Atlantic Pump on the road

SAVING MONEY ON TAXES.

Those taxpayers who took advantage of the one per cent discount allowed for the payment of city taxes before July are those who will also take advantage of the five per cent discount on county taxes and pay their school tax before the five per cent penalty is added. By this promptness in meeting their tax obligations this class of citizens will save a very real sum in the payment of their share of maintaining local government.

The cost of failure to exercise foresight by paying taxes promptly may not appear to be very heavy in the case of the average taxpayer, but a few moments spent in calculation will reveal the fact that delinquency is an expensive luxury. Take the case of a property owner whose total taxes aggregate $100, divided in the proportions of $40 for city, $20 for county and $40 for school purposes. If the city tax is paid during July the taxpayer will save three per cent which will be added on August 1 and one per cent for each month thereafter until paid. If the delinquency extends over a year the penalty will become 15 per cent, or $6, making the total to be paid $46.

By prompt payment of the county tax five per cent will be saved which, in the case in question, will be $1. School taxes are not subject to a discount but the imposition of a five per cent penalty can be avoided, by paying before October 1. On $10 that would mean a saving of $2.

It will thus be seen that the taxpayer who takes the discounts and avoids the penalties, will save $9 on a tax bill of $100. This is a pretty fair rate of interest, very much higher in fact, than any ordinary investment yields. Even if it were very much less the saving of the amount is good business, and that is a trait every good citizen should display in the matter of meeting his or her tax obligations.

GETTING RID OF AN EYE-SORE.

The removal of anything that has contributed to the unsightliness of any section of the city pleases everybody. It does even more. It encourages a large number of people to make improvements in their home surroundings and other home owners are in turn influenced or shamed into doing something to make their premises more inviting.

The activity now in progress in Chestnut Hill cemetery is a case in point. This resting place of the dead, which has been very indifferently cared for during many years, is being so thoroughly renovated that, when the work is completed according to the improvement plan, it will become a beauty spot instead of an eyesore in that section of the city. Removal of the weeds and brush, reconstruction of permanent walks and seeding the whole cemetery to grass will work a wonderful transformation in its appearance. What has been a reproach to management of the cemetery will be freely given for the display of civic pride which prompted the improvement to be made.

The slow arrival of that reduction in express rates arouses the suspicion that it has been shipped by express.

The President's strike settlement proposal preserves the status quo ante as to wages as well as the privilege of coal consumers to ante up for war-time prices for next winter's fuel.

In the accounts of the proceedings of the Washington conference the public fails to find any reference to a decision to declare a strike against strikes.

An Ideal Neighbor.

A Great Eastern man the other day described one of his townsmen as an "ideal neighbor" because he had never borrowed a lawn mower or garden rake or cup of flour in the two years he had lived next door.

Proper Attitude of Candidates.

Candidate—"I suppose in this campaign the proper thing for me to do is to stand on my record." Political boss—"Not much; jump on the other fellow's record."

Should Wear Something.

"Are you in favor of women wearing knickerbockers?" asked the Sweet Young Thing. "No," replied the Old Boy. "But I am in favor of them wearing skirts."

The Ship Subsidy

Mining Congress Journal.

Considerations of an imperative nature prompted the House Committee on the Merchant Marine to recommend the passage of the bill providing for payment of a subsidy to promote and maintain the American merchant marine. The urgent need for a measure which will insure economic and defensive safety to the nation in time of peace as well as in time of war has never been more apparent than now. Truly it has been said that "a nation's merchant vessels are its peace-time commercial agents and its war-time naval auxiliaries." There can be no question raised concerning the need for a well-balanced national merchant marine. Development of our national resources and our commerce must continue, our naval strength must be kept secure, and the merchant marine is one of the most vital agencies necessary to these ends.

What plan offers greater possibilities for complete success than the subsidy? Certainly not government operation, for that plan has already proved an appalling source of extravagance in the expenditure of public funds. Certainly private operation cannot be successful in competition with the strong subsidized merchant marines of other countries, without government support. Certainly privately-owned vessels without limited capital cannot operate profitably if government operation, with unlimited capital, is continued, and the nation cannot afford to drive its privately-owned ships off the seas. Government operation lacks private initiative. Private operation insures increased efficiency. All of these considerations lead directly to the conclusion that private operation with government aid is desirable. The measure contains ample safeguards surrounding the use of public funds and provides for the return to the Treasury of compensation not needed by any vessel or where a vessel's profits are in excess of a certain percentage.

The nation cannot afford to permit its commerce to be carried in foreign-owned vessels. Past experience has proved conclusively that dependence upon foreign shipping to carry our products into the markets of the world results in our surplus production being stacked up along railroads and on wharves and docks, deteriorating and rotting, whenever the foreign producer desires to have first entry into those markets. We have no right to expect that we should we hope that foreign-owned vessels will at any time give efficient service and make prompt deliveries of our freight to our customers abroad when the commerce of the nation whose flag they fly will thereby be in any way handicapped or restricted.

American ships flying the American flag should ply the sea lanes and engage in the carrying trade of the world in free competition with privately-owned vessels of other nations, unhandicapped by foreign subsidies, and ready for purposes of national defense in any emergency which may arise. The United States should never be permitted to lapse to the pre-war standard as a maritime nation. Never again should the nation be humiliated by the dictation of foreign governments as to what goods shall be carried, how, and when, at fabulous and excessive rates. Never again, as during the war, should our naval strength be jeopardized by the weakness of our merchant marine. This ship subsidy bill should be passed. The country should not be compelled to bear longer the burden of mistakes and folly of short-sighted policies.

Child Labor and The Constitution

Chicago News.

President Harding sympathizes with the essential object of the newly-formed national committee on child labor and will send a special message to Congress urging the submission of a constitutional amendment. That would confer upon Congress the power to regulate or abolish child labor throughout the country. Congress has made two attempts to deal with the child labor problem. The courts have nullified both attempts by declaring the child labor laws unconstitutional. It is now impossible to reach the real question by federal statutory enactments. According to some estimates, the federal child labor laws before being declared unconstitutional actually took about 150,000 children out of mills and factories. Other estimates are to the effect that continued and systematic enforcement of a federal child labor law would have been up to 1,000,000 children.

These figures, though not exact, indicate the magnitude of the problem now sought to be solved by means of a constitutional amendment.

Just Folks

Edgar A. Guest.

IF I HAD HIS MONEY.

I wish I had his money. There's a thousand things I'd do. I'd build a child from a head, tail and keep it going too. If I had all his millions I'd go round from day to day just looking for a marriage I could lift and throw away. If I were rich as he is, I wouldn't make it my business to be the biggest of hearted and the kindest man in town.

I've told it to my neighbor, and I've told it to my wife. What I would do with money in this vale of mortal strife. And after a rich man passes but I don't say how and why. Now if I had his money I would be a great deal better off. I know a lot of ways to keep that fellow from getting me. And you can bet I'd keep them off his wealth heeded to me.

I wish I had his money. I believe that I could cure a dozen ailments that may be troubling you. There's trouble all about me, there are men in want today. Yet he never says a word to me so he goes along his way. But if I had his money I would know no peace of mind. Until I'd done the thing, to which the rich are all so blind.

I'm saving for the future and I'm little I can give. It takes the most of what I earn in decency to live. There's still a morning on my hours, and while it lasts there. My neighbors can't expect that I will shoulder their despair. Sometimes they say I'm stingy, but at heart I'm really poor. For if I had a fortune I would gladly do a lot.

Owners Who Post Lands Against Fishing Held by State Dept. of Fisheries to Be Narrow Minded

By Associated Press.
HARRISBURG, July 11.—Land owners who "post" their property against trespassing or fishing with the intention of preventing sportsmen from angling in streams that flow across the property take "a narrow view-point," the State Department of Fisheries declares in announcing action on complaints recently received.
Protests were sent to the department by the Blair County Fish, Game and Forestry Association and the Huntingdon County Conservation Association complaining that a portion of the Raystown branch of the Juniata river for a distance of about eight miles had been posted. The matter was taken up with the Department of Internal Affairs and it was determined that in only one instance had title to the stream passed from the Commonwealth and that the land owners even though they posted their property could not keep fishermen from fishing in the stream, provided the anglers got on it without trespassing on the property.
"Several streams have been posted throughout the Commonwealth prohibiting trespassing, where the title has passed from the Commonwealth and there is nothing which the Department can do in the matter," a statement by the department explains. "The land owner takes a narrow view-point when he posts his land against trespassing and fishing and the department believes some way could be worked out whereby there would be fishing not only for the land owner but also for the sportsmen and he, in turn, could keep the stream stocked. The Department of Fisheries does not supply fish to any stream if it has been closed to fishing."
"It had been hoped that the receipts from the fishermen's licenses would be in an amount sufficient so that a portion could be set aside for the purchase of waters for the public. This could have been done if the bill had been passed as originally drawn which placed the age limit at 36 years. By amending this bill to 21 years it deprives the Department of Fisheries of several hundred thousand dollars and the department trusts that the next session of the Legislature will reduce the age limit so that there will be sufficient funds for the purchase of fishing grounds. The department trusts that the sportsmen throughout the State will see that the next session of the Legislature reduces the age limit so that there will be sufficient funds for the purchase of fishing grounds and also for carrying out the other work which has been outlined, which it has been impossible to do owing to the revenues received."

MOUNT PLEASANT SEEKS SUM DUE IT AT STATE CAPITAL

Attaches of Public Service Commission Writes of Unknown Fund.

SOLICITOR TO TAKE ACTION

Special to The Courier.
MOUNT PLEASANT, July 11.—Somewhere, supposedly at the State Capital, there is a sum of $250 which belongs to the borough of Mount Pleasant, according to a communication from W. H. Cornelius, who represents himself as attached to the Public Service Commission. A letter to counsel from Mr. Cornelius proposes that if he be reimbursed for securing the money he will make an effort to have it turned into the coffers of the borough.
While members of council were outspoken in their belief that if there is money due the borough at Harrisburg and a public servant knows of it there should be no delay in seeing that it is paid over without compensation, it was decided to turn the matter over to the solicitor, Eugene Warden.

Much business was disposed of at a rather lengthy session of the solons. All bills were ordered paid as read and a report was made of the taxes received and other receipts, showing a deficit in the general fund of $5,983.75. The borough is $4,500 farther in debt this time this year than at this time last year.
Burgess William M. Overholt read his report for June, showing 22 arrests, fines of $166.50 and licenses and permits of $16, making a total of $181.50.
When reports of committees were asked, Mr. Gearhart, chairman of the fire committee, reported that there had been no truck driver since the first of the month and that on July 4 he had moved the truck to his garage.

James Olinger of the street committee reported that coal trucks are traveling down Washington street over the "dollar way" and breaking up the street, and asked if something couldn't be done about it.
The board of health asked for $200 due it and this was granted.
Burgess Overholt asked that something be done at the corner of College avenue and Washington street, saying that it was dangerous and was at one time on Sunday five cars were piled up. This was put in the hands of the street committee.

The burgess returned unsigned the ordinance repealing the section of the parking ordinance that prohibits turning of vehicles in an opposite direction by driving into and backing out of or intersecting streets and alleys, stating that he thought this one of the best parts of the ordinance and that he considers this practice most dangerous. With only five members of council present, no action was taken on the matter.
Jerry E. Lobingier made application for the position of fire truck driver. Council set the salary at $75 per month and accepted Lobingier's application, stating that the hours would be from 6 P. M. to 5 A. M., with one day a week off.

Joy Rides Must Stop.
Burgess Overholt has started a crusade against boys in automobiles insulting girls and women by asking them to go for rides. Three Scottsdale youths came to Mount Pleasant and started up the street, insisting on girls going riding with them. They were left so until finally they had persuaded three girls to enter the car and they were arrested by Chief Robert Smith and taken to the borough building where Burgess Overholt fined each of them $10 for disorderly conduct. The police have been instructed to break up the practice.

Lennox Club Loses to West Penn in Second Game of Series, 7-1

Railways Men Hammer Lohr for 12 Hits; Score Consistently.

G. FRAZIER BATS 1.000

The West Penn won the second game of the series for $200 between it and the Lennox Club, played yesterday evening at Morrell field. The score was 7-1. The railways outfit took the first contest played last week, by a score of 8-0.

The Lennox Club didn't have much look in after the first few innings. The West Penners got to Lohr early and "made hay of the sun" was whining. G. Frazier LaPorte and Smiley kept their bats busy and tallies were made in the second, third, fifth, sixth and seventh.

The Lennox team got its only counter in the sixth when Pep Francis walked, got to second on an error and scored on Mooreman's hit over first. G. Frazier again had a perfect day at the bat, getting four hits out of four times at bat. On the fourth of July playing in a Connellsville Independent uniform, he connected for five hits in that many times at the plate.

COCKER-MILL TOWN SERIES AROUSING INTEREST OF FANS

The old-time rivalry between Connellsville and Scottsdele is cropping out already as the result of the three-game series arranged between the independent teams of the two places the first game of which will come off Saturday at the Mill Town.

The backers of the Connellsville team seem to be coming to life at last. There is more conversation on the streets concerning the outcome of the series than has ever been heard of regarding a game here over the week end. There are reports of some money being wagered and a Scottsdele representative in the city recently was not backward about declaring his townpeople would support its club to the limit.

Scottsdele has raked together a first-class team which has been traveling fast. It has defeated a number of good clubs but never seemed just quite ready to meet Connellsville preferring to delay that clash for a time until it was in its full stride.

Scottsdele is now traveling at a fast clip but the same may be said of the Cokers, who have lost only three games out of all played this season. The series promises to produce some great playing.

The Komo Juniors defeated the Slavish School team Monday morning on the Athletic Field on the West Side, 9-8. Features of the game were three home runs by C. W. Foreman, left fielder for the Komos. The batteries were Komos Honisek and Shrum and Egan Slavish School, Forgoth and Mihaluk. This was the third of a series of six games. The Komos have won all three. The fourth was scheduled for today.

NOTED STALLION TO RETURN

Sweeper II, Which Has Been Making Great Record in France, Is to Be Sent Back

Sweeper II is coming home. To the general public this may mean nothing but to those who follow the turf it is mighty fine news. Sweeper II has been making a great record in the stud over on the other side at Mrs. Rasmusen's Haras du Gazon in France. He has been a great rival of Durbar and Irish Lad in quality of his get and his return to this country will be a salutary move for the breeding of thoroughbreds here. Mrs. Rasmusen will send him over in the near future. Sweeper II is a son of the noted Broomstick out of Nevada II.

Diamond Squibs

Chet Terkelson, spitball pitcher, has been sold by Beaumont to Galveston.

Stephenson don't hit, he whines. "I hit," is the laconic tribute paid young Atlas by Tyus Cobb.

Unless somebody walks rather softly, there is a fair prospect that baseball is in for a ruthless season.

The Indianapolis club has signed Ames (Scott) Ingalls, captain of the Syracuse university baseball team.

George Blesser, first baseman for the St. Louis Browns, was the first major league player to make 100 hits this season.

Ty Cobb has few more valuable men on his squad than Fred Haney.

AUSTRALIAN DAVIS CUP TENNIS TEAM ELIMINATE BELGIAN STARS

The photograph shows Australia's trio of tennis stars who traveled a long way to get into the battle for possession of the time-honored Davis cup, emblem of the world's highest tennis honors. The Australians had an easy time in eliminating the Belgians winning the singles and doubles in straight sets. The players from left to right are J. O. Anderson, Gerald L. Patterson and P. O'Brien.

"CAP" STUBBS

The midgot can hit and field and will take chances.

Looks as though Joe Harris, who has had a hectic career as a first sacker has won a steady berth at last with the Red Sox.

Urban Shocker of the St. Louis Browns is making a strong bid for leading pitching honors in the American league this season.

Percy Smallwood, trainer of the Cleveland Indians for several years, has resigned. Lefty Wiseman of Boston will succeed him.

Jack Knight, second baseman of the Oakland team, lost a finger through amputation. The finger lost is the third on his left hand.

One of "Babe" Ruth's idolaters says the big fellow has not been getting a square deal. He hasn't been getting many hits lately either.

Conde Mack is driving ten pitchers among his 24 players, who promise to hit the Philadelphia Athletics out of last place this year.

Waite Hoyt is running up a long string of victories. Shocker, Fisher and Hoyt appear to be the best pitchers in the American league.

Lee Willard of Denver, star University of Colorado athlete, has signed a contract with the Chicago White Sox. Willard is an outfielder.

New Ball released as manager of the Augusta team did not fore so bad for it as it did the owners of the club paid him his season's salary in full.

When Babe Ruth threw his gate for throwing dust on a umpire, Hildebrandt was the first time that Babe had been ejected since becoming a Yankee.

The Houston club has recalled Bishop Clements from the Corsicana farm, with the idea of playing him in the infield and giving Daring Gross a rest.

The Bloomington club recalled Pitcher Frank Quinn from the Grand Rapids club of the Central league to which place he was recently sent on an option.

If there's one word more than another for which the hard working and battling manager has no patience as applied to his team "Jinx" must be that word.

St. Louis Cardinal signed Vick of Michigan, the All American center not because of his athletic qualities but because he is a good looking college catcher.

Unless Earl (Shorty) Adams' Cardinal farm hand with Wichita Falls, sets up his work in St. Louis, Earl will be calling him Earl and Earl George Popover can't keep him out of a berth under Mickey.

Baseball in Japan has reached the stage where even old old Buddhists clinging to the traditions of centuries long dead will toss their uneased silk in caps into the air and plead with some Nipponese Babe Ruth to "pate the pill."

Bernard Sullivan, catcher of the Manhattan college baseball team has been elected captain of the 1933 nine.

Do you remember "way back" when the Chicago White Sox were not so white but were known as ball players?

Paul Schanahan, four years star first sacker of the Washish college nine, has joined the Detroit American.

NEW RECORD BY TY COBB

Ty Cobb thinks he holds an other record that can be added to his long list of records for being hit by a pitched ball and then being put on first base then being hit by a batted ball and being put out all in one inning. If any other player was hit by the ball in one inning let him speak up.

Deduction
"The hand that rocks the cradle is the hand that rules the world."
The cradle has given way to the basket.
Hence this confusion.

Both are Buick

One has Four Cylinders—the other has Six

The Buick nameplate on the radiator of a car is the mark of merit. Whether the car has four cylinders or six is of secondary importance. The vital fact is that it's a Buick.

The new Buick Four is the ideal automobile for the motorist requiring a light economical car, yet having all the speed, power and sturdiness of larger and costlier cars.

The Buick Six, perfectly appointed, with all the flexibility and smoothness of the six cylinder car at its best, has earned its position among motor cars as the Standard of Comparison.

Choosing between the Four and the Six is simply a matter of size and price. Both are Buick.
